

Accessibility statement for Stock C of E Primary School website

This accessibility statement applies to the website: <https://www.stockessex.co.uk/>.

Using this website

This website is run by Stock C of E Primary School. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts using your browser or device settings
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand. AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible:

- some older PDF documents are not fully accessible to screen reader software
- some images may not have appropriate alternative text
- some pages have headings that are not structured correctly for assistive technologies

Feedback and contact information

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018. If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Stock C of E Primary School is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA standard, due to the non-compliances listed below.

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons.

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

- Some PDFs and Word documents published before September 2020 may not be accessible. We plan to replace or update them where possible.
- Some images do not have appropriate alt text. We are working to fix these.

Disproportionate burden

At present, we do not consider any content on the website to be a disproportionate burden to make accessible.

Content that's not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

PDFs or other documents published before 23 September 2018 are not within the scope of the regulations.

What we're doing to improve accessibility

We are:

- carrying out regular accessibility checks on our website
- training staff responsible for website content
- ensuring new content meets accessibility standards
